Essay is basically the act of 'trying out... or an act of attempting to accomplish something. It is also an analytic or interpretive literary composition. Essays; therefore; essentially reveal the personality of the writer besides giving his/her viewpoints on a specific subject matter. Essays help us express ourselves; our thoughts; our ideas and our perceptions about things we are associated with or about things we are impacted with or wish to have an impact on. Essays not only provide the required space and tool; they also let us leisurely saunter along. Tweeting or emailing cannot achieve this. This answers why we should write essays. We should write because we cannot always speak out minds coherently. There is no fixed length of an essay. It could be written in just about 100 words or even in several thousand words. Generally speaking; essays are not very long. But they need not be too small either. On an average; an essay in one thousand words should be adequate. A range of 1;000 to 1;500 is generally accepted as ideal for competitive exams and that is the length of the majority of the essays in this book.

This is a book about Courage and Patriotism. It tells the dramatic stories of a number of American politicians of various political and regional allegiances whose one overriding loyalty was to the United States and to the right as God gave them to see it. They range from born aristocrats to self-made men. Some are well-known, some almost forgotten. But all of them, in the face of dreadful consequences, exhibited a special kind of greatness. These stories about them remind us sharply that there is, in addition to a courage with which men die, a courage by which men must live. —Print Ed.
